Be a Flu Fighter! Get your seasonal flu shot... right in your car!

Dwight D. Eisenhower Army Medical Center

Second Annual Drive-Thru Flu Shot Clinic

Saturday, Oct. 28th, 8:00am -2:00pm at
Dwight D. Eisenhower AMC Parking Lot

Note: People who are ill on the clinic day or have been advised not to receive a flu shot by their health provider should not participate in the clinic.

In general, this includes:
- If you have had a severe reaction after receiving the vaccine in the past.
- If you have experienced breathing problems or have an allergy to eggs.
- If you have a severely or severely ill (such as fever).
- If you have fainted after vaccine.

HELPFUL TIPS:
- Open to ALL beneficiaries, dependents, family members and Active Duty Service members that have not been vaccinated for the 2017-2018 Flu Vaccine.
- Bring Dependent Identification Card
- No animals in the vehicle
- Wear short sleeves
- Complete Form
- Must be 10 or older (children 10 – 18 years old needs to be accompanied by a parent or guardian)
- Children 9 and younger should go to Family Medicine Clinic at DDEAMC on the same day.

For more information, Vaccine Information Sheet Click Here and Flu Vaccine Forms Click Here (Please have forms completed prior to coming to expedite services.)